1 the third page, please? Could I please see
2 page number 4?

3 Yes, I remember seeing this document.

4 Q. Have you read this document?

5 A. Just now or in the past?

6 Q. That's a good question. I withdraw
7 my question.

8 Before we began the deposition this
9 morning, had you ever read this document?

10 A. I can't recall the exact time, but if
11 my lawyer presented it to me, then I'm sure I
12 read through it.

13 Q. You haven't produced any documents in 14 discovery thus far, correct?

15 A. Correct, I have not.

16 Q. Did you do anything to look for
17 documents responsive to Guitar Center's
18 requests?

19 A. I've looked through my e-mail, but
20 given the time frame from when I worked there
21 to now, it's reasonable to assume that
22 whatever e-mails or documents I've had there
23 have long since been deleted or trashed.

24 Q. Why is it reasonable to assume that?

GENEVIEVE R. EVANS

Page 18

1 A. Because Gmail deletes your deleted
2 e-mails after 30 days. So, after I finished
3 working there, I did not believe I would need
4 any of my application correspondence and I
5 deleted them, and then Gmail will permanently
6 delete them.

7 Q. Ma'am, it's your assertion that you
8 were the victim of a sexual battery while you
9 worked at Guitar Center, correct?

10 MR. RIESER: Objection. This
11 is irrelevant, and she's not
12 answering any questions of the 13 underlying claim.

14 MR. HANK: If we need to get
15 the judge on the phone, we're going
16 to do it.

17 MR. RIESER: Do you have a
18 proffer?

19 MR. HANK: Do you stand on that
20 objection?

21 MR. RIESER: Yes, I want to
22 stand on that objection. Do you have
23 a proffer as to how it's relevant?

24 MR. HANK: Let's go off the

GENEVIEVE R. EVANS

1 Q. You do recall that several months
2 transpired between your first application and
3 when you actually got a job, correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 MR. HANK: Let's blow up the
6 second rectangle, please.

7 BY MR. HANK:

8 Q. Ma'am, are you able to read that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Please take a moment to read it
11 silently, and please let me know when you're 12 finished.

13 A. I finished.

14 Q. Do you see where that rectangle
15 reflects that on May 7, 2019 you applied for 16 a Senior Sales Associate position at the 17 Plymouth Meeting location?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You in fact did that, correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Your initial application was online,
22 correct?

23 A. It appears it was, yes.

24 Q. Do you have any independent memory of

1 that one way or the other?

2 A. No, I do not. The only part I
3 remember of the application process is the
4 phone call from Mr. Todorovski.

5 Q. Please tell me what you remember
6 about that phone call.

7 A. I was just sitting down and I got a
8 call saying, "We've reviewed your application
9 from a few months ago. I'm sorry we haven't
10 been able to get back to you. We've been in 11 the process of switching over management", or 12 something of the sort, and he asked me a few
13 questions about what work experience I had,
14 if I had experience working in group
15 environments, running a register, working in 16 sales, what music background I had.

17 He seemed to like the responses, so
18 he said he would like to have me in for an 19 in-person interview with the manager who
20 worked above him.

21 Q. This phone call with Mr. Todorovski,
22 approximately how long was it?

23 A. I cannot remember.

24 Q. Could it have been more than half an

Page 37

1 another whether you ever got an e-mail that
2 looked like this from Guitar Center?

3 A. I don't remember, but I'm sure I did.

4 Q. When we look at this exhibit, do you
5 see where it's highlighted in blue there's a
6 hyperlink to View/Accept Offer?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Do you remember one way or another
9 whether you ever clicked on that link?

10 A. I don't remember, but I'm sure I did.

16 MR. HANK: And can we please

18 BY MR. HANK:

19 Q. Ma'am, Exhibit 5 is a four-page
20 exhibit that is Bates labeled Evans 12
21 through Evans 15. What you have blown up on 22 the screen is only the first page of the 23 exhibit, but I'll start with that.

24 Do you remember ever receiving an

2 page?

3 A. I don't remember exactly, but I'm
4 sure I did receive it.

5 MR. HANK: Let's go to the next
6 page of the exhibit, please.

7 BY MR. HANK:

8 Q. Ma'am, I'll represent to you this is
9 the second page of the offer letter. Please
10 take a moment to read the second page and let 11 me know when you're finished.

12 A. I finished.

13 Q. Ma'am, do you remember the text you
14 just read being part of your offer letter?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Do you remember ever reading it
17 before today?

18 A. No.

19 MR. HANK: Please go to page 3.

20 This is a little hard to read. Can
21 we blow up the -- let me pause.

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you remember providing any
3 references to Guitar Center?

4 A. I don't remember which ones I
5 provided or what I provided them, but I'm
6 sure if it was necessary for me to be
7 employed I did.

8 Q. The next paragraph says, "Your
9 electronic signature will indicate your 10 acceptance of this offer and signature to the 11 Arbitration Program Agreement. Your offer
12 will be valid for two business days from the 13 date of issuance". Do you see that?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Do you remember one way or another
16 whether you ever provided that electronic

18 A. I do not.

1 Q. Ma'am, I want to focus your attention
2 in the lower, right-hand corner of the
3 section of the document we have blown up. Do
4 you see in the right-hand corner where it
5 says "OF - Extended - External Retail"? Do
6 you see that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Does that refresh your memory at all
9 about whether Guitar Center extended an offer
10 of employment to you at approximately
11 10:26 a.m. on May 10, 2019?

12 A. No, it does not.

13 Q. You don't know one way or the other?

14 A. I do not.

15 Q. I want to focus your attention a
16 little higher on the document. Do you see
17 where it says "OF Esig Signature" and then it
18 has your name?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Does that refresh your memory at all
21 about whether you provided an e-signature at 22 approximately 10:27 a.m. on May 10, 2019?

23 A. It doesn't refresh my memory.

24 Q. Do you remember anything whatsoever

Page 44

1 about the onboarding process at Guitar
2 Center?

3 A. I do not.

4 Q. I want to turn our attention for a
5 moment back to the in-person interview we
6 talked about earlier. If our records reflect
7 that that interview -- withdrawn.

8 Do you have any recollection of a
9 discussion with Filip Todorovski and John
10 Payton on May 13, 2019 at the Plymouth
11 Meeting store?

12 A. I don't remember what date it was or 13 what time it was. I do remember bits and 14 pieces of questions that were asked.

15 Q. As we sit here today, does the name
16 John Payton mean anything to you? Do you
17 have any idea who that is?

18 A. I'm assuming it was the manager above
19 Mr. Todorovski that was in the room, but I
20 cannot recall exactly if that was his name.

Genevieve Evans
14 East Germantown Pike Apt 6
Plymouth Meeting, PA 19462

Dear Genevieve:

We are pleased to confirm our offer of employment to you. We are very excited to have you join the team. The terms of your offer are listed below.

- ↗ Job Title: Senior Sales Associate
- ↗ Start Date: To be communicated upon successful clearance of background check and completion of pre-hire forms.
- ↗ Salary: $13.00 per hour
- ↗ Employment Status: Non-exempt, Part-time, and Regular
- ↗ Direct Supervisor: Filip Todorovski
- ↗ Merit Eligibility: All employees hired from February through October are eligible to participate in the next annual merit process at a pro-rated amount based on time in the position and performance. If you are hired after October and prior to the coming year's merit process, you are not eligible for an additional merit increase until the following year and based upon performance.
- ↗ Vacation: As a part-time associate, you are not eligible to participate in the company-sponsored vacation plan.
- ↗ Healthcare Benefits: As a part-time associate, you are not eligible to participate in company-sponsored healthcare benefits.
- ↗ 401(k): You are eligible to participate in the 401(k) plan. The company will match you $1-per-$1 of your own contributions up to 2% of eligible compensation beginning on your 1 year anniversary.
- ↗ First Day Location: 201 West Ridge Pike, Conshahocken, Pennsylvania 19428

This offer is not intended to be a contract of employment and your employment is "at will," unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing and signed by the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer of Guitar Center, Inc. This status means that you have the right to resign at any time, with or without cause and with or without notice. Likewise, we retain the right to terminate your employment at any time, with or without cause and with or without notice.

Upon your start date, you will be provided with additional information regarding our employment policies and benefits programs, including the 401(k) Plan, as well as other pertinent information that may help address any other questions you may have regarding your employment.

This letter is contingent upon receipt of satisfactory references, pre-employment checks (for applicable positions) and demonstration of your legal right to work in the United States. In addition, your employment is contingent upon acknowledgement and agreement of the Arbitration Program Agreement included with this offer, as well as acknowledgement and agreement with other onboarding documentation that you will receive following acceptance of this offer.

Your electronic signature will indicate your acceptance of this offer and signature to the Arbitration Program Agreement. Your offer will be valid for two business days from the date of issuance.

We know you have a great contribution to make to the retail and music industries and that you will find working here a rewarding experience. We are excited about the opportunity to work with you as we create an even stronger company.

Regards,

Filip Todorovski

WOODWIND BRASSWIND

ARBITRATION PROGRAM AGREEMENT

Although we (meaning Guitar Center, Inc. and its subsidiary employers) hope that disputes with associates will not occur, we believe that when disputes arise it is in our mutual best interests to handle them promptly and with a minimum of disturbance to the lives of the impacted associates or our operations. In most cases, disputes are resolved through discussions with the assistance of a supervisor, member of management or Human Resources. In the rare case where informal resolution is not possible, the dispute will now be resolved through the use of a neutral third-party arbitrator.

To provide for more expedient resolution of disputes, we have instituted a mandatory arbitration procedure for all associates that are not otherwise covered by an agreement relating to the terms of employment (we call it the "Arbitration Program"). Under the Arbitration Program, covered disputes between you and the company must be submitted for resolution by mandatory arbitration after appropriate attempts have been made to resolve the dispute informally.

Disputes That Are Covered

Except as provided in the next section, all disputes between you and the company (including its subsidiaries, owners, officers, directors, employees, agents or successors) will be resolved exclusively by final and binding arbitration, and not by court or other action. These disputes include, among others:

- whether or not a dispute is covered by the Arbitration Program;
- disputes arising out of your hiring, employment or termination of employment;
- disputes alleging violation of wage and hour laws or pay practices;
- disputes involving confidentiality or trade secret violations or unfair competition;
- disputes alleging harassment or discrimination (including, among others, discrimination based on sex, pregnancy, race, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, creed, marital status, sexual orientation, mental or physical disability or medical condition or other characteristics protected by law);
- disputes alleging a breach of an express or implied duty, such as among others, breach of contract or breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing;
- disputes alleging a violation of public policy;
- disputes alleging any other violation of federal, state or local law; and
- disputes alleging any other tort or violation of contractual or common law rights.

Disputes That Are Not Covered

Disputes that are not covered by the Arbitration Program and are excluded from arbitration include:

- disputes covered by a written employment agreement that expressly provides for resolution of disputes;
- disputes based on a company employee benefit or welfare plan that contains an appeal procedure or other procedure for the resolution of disputes under that plan;
- disputes under ERISA;
- disputes regarding workers' compensation claims;
- disputes regarding unemployment compensation benefits;
- disputes within the jurisdiction of the National Labor Relations Board;
- disputes within the jurisdictional limits of small claims court;
- disputes covered by federal law which are not subject to mandatory binding pre-dispute arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, such as claims under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform Act; and
- disputes where a party is seeking injunctive or other equitable relief, such as disputes relating to, among other things, unfair competition or the use or unauthorized disclosure of trade secrets or confidential information (in those cases the party may seek equitable relief from an appropriate court).

Nothing in this agreement prohibits you from filing an administrative charge with the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or any other federal, state or local administrative agency.

Further, nothing in this agreement precludes either you or the company from participating in government investigations.

Waiver of Multi-Plaintiff, Class, Collective and Representative Actions

Covered disputes must be brought on an individual basis only and an individual award is the exclusive remedy that may be provided by the arbitrator. Neither you nor the company may submit a multi-plaintiff, class, collective or representative action for resolution under the Arbitration Program and no arbitrator has authority to proceed with arbitration on that basis. Any disputes concerning the validity of the waiver included in this section will be decided by a court of competent jurisdiction, not by the arbitrator. In those matters, we will assert that you have agreed to pursue all claims individually pursuant to arbitration and may ask a court to compel arbitration of your individual claims. To the extent your filing of that type of action is protected concerted activity under the National Labor Relations Act, the filing will not result in threats, discipline, discharge or other adverse action against you in violation of the National Labor Relations Act. In the event a court determines the waiver included in this section is unenforceable with respect to a dispute, then the waiver will not apply to that dispute. In that case, the dispute must be filed in a court of competent jurisdiction and that court will be the exclusive forum for that dispute.

Arbitration Procedure

Prior to submitting a dispute to arbitration, both you and the company must make good faith efforts to resolve the dispute through internal management and Human Resources / Legal. Only when those reasonable internal efforts fail may a dispute be submitted to arbitration. Arbitration will be conducted on a confidential basis by a single arbitrator in accordance with the National Rules for the Resolution of Employment Disputes of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), including the ability to conduct discovery and file dispositive motions. If you and the company are unable to agree upon a neutral arbitrator, the party demanding the arbitration will obtain a list of arbitrators from the AAA. You and the company then will alternately strike names from the list until only one name remains. The remaining person will be the arbitrator. Any conflict between the AAA rules and procedures and the Arbitration Program will be resolved in favor of the Arbitration Program. The burden of proof at an arbitration will be on the party seeking the relief. The decision or award of the arbitrator will be in writing and will include the findings and conclusions upon which the award is based. The decision or award of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties. The arbitrator will have the power to award any type of legal or equitable relief available in a court of competent jurisdiction, including attorneys' fees and costs to the extent that relief is available under the applicable law. The arbitrator is only authorized to render an award which is based upon findings of fact that are supported by substantial evidence and correct conclusions of applicable law. Awards may be entered as a judgment or order in any court of competent jurisdiction either by the court confirming the award or vacating, modifying or correcting the award under applicable law. Because any award may be entered as a judgment or order in any court of competent jurisdiction, any relief or recovery to which you or the company may be entitled will be limited to that awarded by the arbitrator. Information regarding the AAA National Rules for the Resolution of Employment Disputes is available for review from the Human Resources Department and also may be obtained by directly contacting AAA from the AAA's website (www.adr.org) or by calling (800) 778-7879 or (888) 774-6904.

Fees

We will pay the AAA case management and administrative fees and the arbitrator's fee and expenses. Both you and the company have the right to be represented by an attorney and to call witnesses and experts. Each party will be responsible for the costs and expenses relating to its attorneys, witnesses and experts.

Time Limits

Any claim for arbitration must be timely commenced within the time in which an administrative charge or complaint would have to be filed, if the claim is one which must be filed with an administrative agency. If the arbitration claim raises an issue which does not need to be filed with an administrative agency, then the claim must be filed within the time set by the appropriate statute of limitations.

Consideration

This agreement and agreeing to submit to the Arbitration Program is a condition of new or continued employment. If you accept or continue employment with the company, both you and the company will be bound by its terms. Your acceptance or continuation of employment with the company and the company's reciprocal agreement to arbitrate covered claims constitute consideration for the obligations imposed by this agreement.

At-Will Employment

Nothing in this agreement creates a contract of employment for a specific duration of time. Employment is voluntarily entered into. You are free to resign at any time with or without notice or cause. Similarly, the company may terminate its employment relationship with you at any time for any reason with or without notice or cause. Nothing in this agreement or in any other oral or written statement can create a contract of employment or alter the at-will nature of your employment.

Governing Law and Interpretation

Because of the interstate nature of the company's business, this agreement is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, including its procedural provisions. The arbitrator shall apply the applicable substantive law to determine issues of liability, damages and other remedies regarding all disputes to be arbitrated. If any term or provision of this agreement is declared unenforceable and that term or provision cannot be modified to be enforceable, that term or provision will become null and void, leaving the remainder of this agreement in full force and effect. Except as provided above regarding multi-plaintiff, class, collective and representative actions, the arbitrator exclusively will decide questions of enforceability and arbitrability, as well as procedural questions arising out of the dispute. This agreement will be interpreted or modified to the extent necessary for it to be enforceable and to give effect to the parties' expressed intent to create a valid and binding arbitration procedure to resolve all of the disputes as described above.

Knowing and Voluntary Agreement

This agreement sets forth the agreement of you and the company regarding the matters covered by the Arbitration Program and it supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, whether written or oral, pertaining to the resolution of disputes between you and the company. By issuing this agreement, the company agrees to be bound by its terms without signing it.

BY ELECTRONICALLY SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT, YOU AFFIRM THAT YOU UNDERSTAND THAT BY USING ARBITRATION TO RESOLVE DISPUTES YOU ARE GIVING UP ANY RIGHT TO A JUDGE OR JURY TRIAL WITH REGARD TO ALL DISPUTES SUBJECT TO THIS AGREEMENT.

BY ELECTRONICALLY SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT, YOU ARE AGREEING TO THIS AGREEMENT, AND AFFIRMING THAT YOU KNOWINGLY AND FREELY ENTERED INTO THIS AGREEMENT, HAVE HAD SUFFICIENT TIME TO READ AND UNDERSTAND ITS TERMS AND HAVE BEEN PROVIDED SUFFICIENT OPPORTUNITY TO SEEK LEGAL COUNSEL REGARDING THE MEANING AND EFFECT OF THIS AGREEMENT PRIOR TO ACCEPTING ITS TERMS.
